

THE CENTRAL EQUINE VETS CITY OF EDINBURGH HORSE SHOW

Sunday 5th May 2019

Meet the Judges!

NICOLA MOWATT - JUDGE
FOR CONCOURS D'ELEGANCE
Class Number 36

Nicola is mother to 3 teenagers and will be celebrating the big 50 this year! She has owned and ridden horses since she was 6yrs old. After leaving school she joined Lothian & Borders Police, then took early retirement after 13yrs.

All her life, Nicola has been involved with horses one way or another.

Initially producing and competing successfully with Show Hunters, Nicola then bought her Arab Stallion, 'Aladdin's Magic' 11yrs ago and started Kingsmeadow House Horses. Nicola and her family then got very involved with the Scottish Arab world, breeding, producing and competing pure and pure-bred Arabs for the show ring. During the last 10yrs Nicola has competed in a variety of equine disciplines with her Arab blooded horses, including dressage, jumping and endurance.

She began judging at local horses shows a few years ago and feels that it's very important to give constructive feedback to all participants that she judges in the show ring, as well as encouraging all handlers/riders to give showing a go.

Nicola has recently achieved her BHS teaching qualifications and is coaching on a regular basis, especially enjoying working with riders that have lost their nerve and need some help rebuilding their confidence, allowing them to enjoy their horses once again. Nicola also travel to livery yards to hold small showing clinics, aimed at beginners to showing."

All monies raised at the City of Edinburgh Horse Show goes towards funding the Edinburgh Riding of the Marches and the Edinburgh March Riding Association would like to thank all those supporting our event.
